Sec. 2001. Definitions

As used in this chapter:

- (1) Commerce
The term "commerce" has the meaning provided by section 203(b) of this title.
- (2) Employer
The term "employer" includes any person acting directly or indirectly in the interest of an employer in relation to an employee or prospective employee.
- (3) Lie detector
The term "lie detector" includes a polygraph, deceptograph, voice stress analyzer, psychological stress evaluator, or any other similar device (whether mechanical or electrical) that is used, or the results of which are used, for the purpose of rendering a diagnostic opinion regarding the honesty or dishonesty of an individual.

- (4) Polygraph

The term "polygraph" means an instrument that -

- (A) records continuously, visually, permanently, and simultaneously changes in cardiovascular, respiratory, and electrodermal patterns as minimum instrumentation standards; and
- (B) is used, or the results of which are used, for the purpose of rendering a diagnostic opinion regarding the honesty or dishonesty of an individual.

- (5) Secretary

The term "Secretary" means the Secretary of Labor.

Sec. 2002. Prohibitions on lie detector use

Except as provided in sections 2006 and 2007 of this title, it shall be unlawful for any employer engaged in or affecting commerce or in the production of goods for commerce -

- (1) directly or indirectly, to require, request, suggest, or cause any employee or prospective employee to take or submit to any lie detector test;
- (2) to use, accept, refer to, or inquire concerning the results of any lie detector test of any employee or prospective employee;
- (3) to discharge, discipline, discriminate against in any manner, or deny employment or promotion to, or threaten to take any such action against -
 - (A) any employee or prospective employee who refuses, declines, or fails to take or submit to any lie detector test, or
 - (B) any employee or prospective employee on the basis of the results of any lie detector test; or
- (4) to discharge, discipline, discriminate against in any manner, or deny employment or promotion to, or threaten to take any such action against, any employee or prospective employee because -
 - (A) such employee or prospective employee has filed any complaint or instituted or caused to be instituted any proceeding under or related to this chapter,
 - (B) such employee or prospective employee has testified or is about to testify in any such proceeding, or

- (C) of the exercise by such employee or prospective employee, on behalf of such employee or another person, of any right afforded by this chapter.

Sec. 2003. Notice of protection

The Secretary shall prepare, have printed, and distribute a notice setting forth excerpts from, or summaries of, the pertinent provisions of this chapter. Each employer shall post and maintain such notice in conspicuous places on its premises where notices to employees and applicants to employment are customarily posted.

Sec. 2004. Authority of Secretary

- (a) In general
The Secretary shall -
 - (1) issue such rules and regulations as may be necessary or appropriate to carry out this chapter;
 - (2) cooperate with regional, State, local, and other agencies, and cooperate with and furnish technical assistance to employers, labor organizations, and employment agencies to aid in effectuating the purposes of this chapter; and
 - (3) make investigations and inspections and require the keeping of records necessary or appropriate for the administration of this chapter.
- (b) Subpoena authority
For the purpose of any hearing or investigation under this chapter, the Secretary shall have the authority contained in sections 49 and 50 of title 15.

Sec. 2005. Enforcement provisions

- (a) Civil penalties
 - (1) In general
Subject to paragraph (2), any employer who violates any provision of this chapter may be assessed a civil penalty of not more than $10,000.
 - (2) Determination of amount
In determining the amount of any penalty under paragraph (1), the Secretary shall take into account the previous record of the person in terms of compliance with this chapter and the gravity of the violation.
 - (3) Collection
Any civil penalty assessed under this subsection shall be collected in the same manner as is required by subsections (b) through (e) of section 1853 of this title with respect to civil penalties assessed under subsection (a) of such section.

- (b) Injunctive actions by Secretary

The Secretary may bring an action under this section to restrain violations of this chapter. The Solicitor of Labor may appear for and represent the Secretary in any litigation brought under this chapter. In any action brought under this section, the district courts of the United States shall have jurisdiction, for cause shown, to issue temporary or permanent restraining orders and injunctions to require compliance with this chapter, including such legal or equitable relief incident thereto as may be appropriate, including, but not limited to, employment, reinstatement, promotion, and the payment of lost wages and benefits.
- (c) Private civil actions
 - (1) Liability

An employer who violates this chapter shall be liable to the employee or prospective employee affected by such violation. Such employer shall be liable for such legal or equitable relief as may be appropriate, including, but not limited to, employment, reinstatement, promotion, and the payment of lost wages and benefits.
 - (2) Court

An action to recover the liability prescribed in paragraph (1) may be maintained against the employer in any Federal or State court of competent jurisdiction by an employee or prospective employee for or on behalf of such employee, prospective employee, and other employees or prospective employees similarly situated. No such action may be commenced more than 3 years after the date of the alleged violation.
 - (3) Costs

The court, in its discretion, may allow the prevailing party (other than the United States) reasonable costs, including attorney's fees.
- (d) Waiver of rights prohibited

The rights and procedures provided by this chapter may not be waived by contract or otherwise, unless such waiver is part of a written settlement agreed to and signed by the parties to the pending action or complaint under this chapter.

Sec. 2006. Exemptions

- (a) No application to governmental employers

This chapter shall not apply with respect to the United States Government, any State or local government, or any political subdivision of a State or local government.
- (b) National defense and security exemption
 - (1) National defense

Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to prohibit the administration, by the Federal Government, in the performance of any counterintelligence function, of any lie detector test to -

- (A) any expert or consultant under contract to the Department of Defense or any employee of any contractor of such Department; or
- (B) any expert or consultant under contract with the Department of Energy in connection with the atomic energy defense activities of such Department or any employee of any contractor of such Department in connection with such activities.

○ (2) Security

Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to prohibit the administration, by the Federal Government, in the performance of any intelligence or counterintelligence function, of any lie detector test to -

- (i) any individual employed by, assigned to, or detailed to, the National Security Agency, the Defense Intelligence Agency, the National Imagery and Mapping Agency, or the Central Intelligence Agency,
- (ii) any expert or consultant under contract to any such agency,
- (iii) any employee of a contractor to any such agency,
- (iv) any individual applying for a position in any such agency, or
- (v) any individual assigned to a space where sensitive cryptologic information is produced, processed, or stored for any such agency; or

○ (B) any expert, or consultant (or employee of such expert or consultant) under contract with any Federal Government department, agency, or program whose duties involve access to information that has been classified at the level of top secret or designated as being within a special access program under section 4.2(a) of Executive Order 12356 (or a successor Executive order).

• (c) FBI contractors exemption

Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to prohibit the administration, by the Federal Government, in the performance of any counterintelligence function, of any lie detector test to an employee of a contractor of the Federal Bureau of Investigation of the Department of Justice who is engaged in the performance of any work under the contract with such Bureau.

- (d) Limited exemption for ongoing investigations

Subject to sections 2007 and 2009 of this title, this chapter shall not prohibit an employer from requesting an employee to submit to a polygraph test if -

 - (1) the test is administered in connection with an ongoing investigation involving economic loss or injury to the employer's business, such as theft, embezzlement, misappropriation, or an act of unlawful industrial espionage or sabotage;
 - (2) the employee had access to the property that is the subject of the investigation;
 - (3) the employer has a reasonable suspicion that the employee was involved in the incident or activity under investigation; and
 - (4) the employer executes a statement, provided to the examinee before the test, that -
 - (A) sets forth with particularity the specific incident or activity being investigated and the basis for testing particular employees,
 - (B) is signed by a person (other than a polygraph examiner) authorized to legally bind the employer,
 - (C) is retained by the employer for at least 3 years, and
 - (D) contains at a minimum -
 - (i) an identification of the specific economic loss or injury to the business of the employer,
 - (ii) a statement indicating that the employee had access to the property that is the subject of the investigation, and
 - (iii) a statement describing the basis of the employer's reasonable suspicion that the employee was involved in the incident or activity under investigation.

- (e) Exemption for security services
 - (1) In general

Subject to paragraph (2) and sections 2007 and 2009 of this title, this chapter shall not prohibit the use of polygraph tests on prospective employees by any private employer whose primary business purpose consists of providing armored car personnel, personnel engaged in the design, installation, and maintenance of security alarm systems, or other uniformed or plainclothes security personnel and whose function includes protection of -

 - (A) facilities, materials, or operations having a significant impact on the health or safety of any State or political subdivision thereof, or the national security of the United States, as determined under rules and regulations issued by the Secretary within 90 days after June 27, 1988, including -
 - (i) facilities engaged in the production, transmission, or distribution of electric or nuclear power,
 - (ii) public water supply facilities,

- (2) Under other exemptions

In the case of an exemption described in subsection (e) or (f) of such section, the exemption shall not apply if the results of an analysis of a polygraph test chart are used, or the refusal to take a polygraph test is used, as the sole basis upon which an adverse employment action described in paragraph (1) is taken against an employee or prospective employee.

- (b) Rights of examinee

The exemptions provided under subsections (d), (e), and (f) of section 2006 of this title shall not apply unless the requirements described in the following paragraphs are met:

 - (1) All phases

Throughout all phases of the test -

 - (A) the examinee shall be permitted to terminate the test at any time;
 - (B) the examinee is not asked questions in a manner designed to degrade, or needlessly intrude on, such examinee;
 - (C) the examinee is not asked any question concerning -
 - (i) religious beliefs or affiliations,
 - (ii) beliefs or opinions regarding racial matters,
 - (iii) political beliefs or affiliations,
 - (iv) any matter relating to sexual behavior; and
 - (v) beliefs, affiliations, opinions, or lawful activities regarding unions or labor organizations; and
 - (D) the examiner does not conduct the test if there is sufficient written evidence by a physician that the examinee is suffering from a medical or psychological condition or undergoing treatment that might cause abnormal responses during the actual testing phase.
 - (2) Pretest phase

During the pretest phase, the prospective examinee -

 - (A) is provided with reasonable written notice of the date, time, and location of the test, and of such examinee's right to obtain and consult with legal counsel or an employee representative before each phase of the test;
 - (B) is informed in writing of the nature and characteristics of the tests and of the instruments involved;
 - (C) is informed, in writing -
 - (i) whether the testing area contains a two-way mirror, a camera, or any other device through which the test can be observed,
 - (ii) whether any other device, including any device for recording or monitoring the test, will be used, or
 - (iii) that the employer or the examinee may (with mutual knowledge) make a recording of the test;

- (A) has a valid and current license granted by licensing and regulatory authorities in the State in which the test is to be conducted, if so required by the State; and
 - (B) maintains a minimum of a $50,000 bond or an equivalent amount of professional liability coverage.
 - (2) Requirements
 - The examiner -
 - (A) renders any opinion or conclusion regarding the test -
 - (i) in writing and solely on the basis of an analysis of polygraph test charts,
 - (ii) that does not contain information other than admissions, information, case facts, and interpretation of the charts relevant to the purpose and stated objectives of the test, and
 - (iii) that does not include any recommendation concerning the employment of the examinee; and
 - (B) maintains all opinions, reports, charts, written questions, lists, and other records relating to the test for a minimum period of 3 years after administration of the test.

Sec. 2008. Disclosure of information

- (a) In general

A person, other than the examinee, may not disclose information obtained during a polygraph test, except as provided in this section.
- (b) Permitted disclosures

A polygraph examiner may disclose information acquired from a polygraph test only to -

 - (1) the examinee or any other person specifically designated in writing by the examinee;
 - (2) the employer that requested the test; or
 - (3) any court, governmental agency, arbitrator, or mediator, in accordance with due process of law, pursuant to an order from a court of competent jurisdiction.
- (c) Disclosure by employer

An employer (other than an employer described in subsection (a),

 - (1) Disclosure by employer test is conducted may disclose information from the test only to -
 - (1) a person in accordance with subsection (b) of this section; or
 - (2) a governmental agency, but only insofar as the disclosed information is an admission of criminal conduct.

Sec. 2009. Effect on other law and agreements

Except as provided in subsections (a), (b), and (c) of section 2006 of this title, this chapter shall not preempt any provision of any State or local law or of any negotiated collective bargaining agreement that prohibits lie detector tests or is more restrictive with respect to lie detector tests than any provision of this chapter.
